Spring into your creativity and be a light for your community
Contest Dates - February 18 - March 20

Thank you for your interest in our FIRST Community Art Contest! We hope this will be the first of many! With the welcoming of Spring just around the corner, we want YOUR creative spirit to SPRING INTO ACTION! It is our intent to begin a community wide transition of healing and hope for health and togetherness through art. We hope you have some fun and feel good about sharing your inspiration with us!

Contest Requirements & FAQ's

- Contest Objective: To create a piece of art that represents a message of transitional & seasonal change that can heal our community.
- What needs to be included within your piece? Your piece should have some sort of sun, a path of some kind and an inspirational quote or phrase that represents: Transitional & seasonal changes that will help heal our community.
- In light of the pandemic and so many people unable to live their lives “normally”, hug their families and friends, be there to support one another and enjoy the little things that they normally used to... Spring is approaching, people are excited to get out and start living again! Let this be your inspiration!
- Materials:
  - Your project must be 8 ½ x 11 in size, using paper, wood, cardboard, etc.
  - You can use any of the following mediums to create your piece: Paints: tempera, watercolor, acrylic; oil pastels, colored pencil, pen & ink, pencil or any combination of any of the above.
- Categories for Judging:
  - There will be THREE category options to choose from:
    - Kids: 5 yrs. – 11 yrs.
    - Pre/Teen: 12 –18 Yrs.
    - Adult
    - ONE winner will be chosen from EACH category
    - The judging will be done by our internal artists staff & volunteers & will be judged on the following criteria:
      - How well it matches the contest objective
      - If it meets the criteria outlined above
      - Most Importantly, YOUR Creativity!!
  - Winners will be announced on MONDAY, MARCH 21, on our FACEBOOK PAGE & Via Our Newsletter! If you are NOT already a member of both, Join them TODAY!!
